Project Title: Hobbyists (A Hub that will host many forums for many different hobbies)

1. Project Overview:

The purpose of my website will be to act as a hub, like a train depot where all hobbies meet. There will be separate pages for each niche/hobby, hence the name "Hobbyists". The website will form a sense of "belonging" amongst people with common interests, and if there are any hyper-specific questions pertaining to a hobby, this website will be the "go-to". The target audience will likely be young adults and can even include the elderly. I plan to implement forms for registration, many scripts alongisde the usage of events to make the site more dynamic.

2. Project Timeline:
